

INTERECONOMICS

MONTHLY REVIEW OF INTERNATIONAL TRADE AND DEVELOPMENT

---

INDEX

1st YEAR, 1966

---

VERLAG WELTARCHIV GMBH · HAMBURG

1. Index by Authors

|   |         |   |        |
|---|---------|---|--------|
| Abrahamson, Dr George, London: Great Britain: A temporary remedy has become a permanent institution                                 | III/18  | Groja, Dr Lodovico, Rome: Foreign trade favours developing countries  | XI/11  |
| — The crisis of the world copper market   | VI/16   | Grosser, Günter, Hamburg: New chances of a "wider European Economic Community"?   | V/3    |
| — External aspects of British economic policy   | XI/17   | Herrera, Felipe, Washington: Basis for a Latin American Common Market   | XII/20 |
| Abramowski, Dr Helmut, Bonn: The Asian Development Bank on the eve of commencing activities   | XII/9   | Jürgensen, Prof Dr Harald, Hamburg: The need of high trade surpluses  | XI/3   |
| Aimone, Prof Enrique, Valparaiso: EEC as model for Latin American integration   | VII/11  | Kantzenbach, Dr Erhard, Hamburg: Economic aspects of the current EEC crisis   | I/12   |
| Arndt, Prof Dr H. W., Canberra, and Panglaykim, Prof Dr J., Djakarta: Indonesian economic problems in 1966                          | IX/22   | Kapferer, Prof Dr Clodwig, Hamburg: How to extend German private investment in developing countries                                       | X/13   |
| Audouard, Rolf, Frankfurt/Main: A practical view of the German export situation (interview)   | I/4     | Kebschull, Dietrich, Hamburg: Worldwide export promotion requires new concepts  | VII/3  |
| Behrendt, Prof Dr Richard F., Berlin: Can we plan the development planning?   | III/4   | — Change without improvement  | XII/3  |
| Berchem, Rütger, Aachen: Nigeria joins the EEC — chance of aid by trade   | IX/17   | — Common Market—no closed society   | XII/6  |
| Berg, Fritz, Düsseldorf: Should, and can, the state promote export? Fundamental change of export policy not required (interview)    | IX/8    | Keiser, Dr Günther, Bonn: Should, and can, the state promote export? Deliveries to developing countries calling for promotion (interview) | IX/10  |
| Berg, Dr Hartmut, Hamburg: Balanced or unbalanced growth in the EEC   | XI/20   | Kern, Helmuth, Hamburg: Topical problems of German-Indonesian trade (interview)   | VII/6  |
| Blair, Dr T.J.V., London: Towards a behavioural science of market research: The challenge of Africa                                 | IV/10   | Kleps, Dr Karlheinz, Berne: Economic planning in theory and practice.   | X/18   |
| Blumenthal, Prof W. Michael, Geneva: Will the Kennedy Round succeed? The Kennedy Round can succeed (interview)                      | V/16    | — Prices and incomes policy—the way out of inflation  | XII/13 |
| Bock, Dr Fritz, Vienna: Austria wants to join EEC (interview)   | XII/7   | Köhler, Hettmar R., Hamburg: Structural changes in international shipping. Revolution in world sea transport through container use?       | V/11   |
| Bolz, Klaus, Hamburg: New approaches to financing development aid   | VIII/15 | Kruse, Prof Dr Alfred, Berlin: Terms of trade and the developing countries  | IX/16  |
| Dams, Prof Dr Theodor, Freiburg: Interdependence between the agricultural and general economic policies of the EEC                  | VII/8   | Kühne, Dr Karl, Brussels: Shipbuilding and subsidies—pros and cons.   | VI/9   |
| Donati, Prof Dr Antigono, Rome: Should, and can, the state promote export? Results more than satisfactory (interview)               | IX/13   | Mansholt, Dr Sicco Leendert, Brussels: Common rules for farming policies within GATT (interview)  | XI/6   |
| Durgeloh, Dr Heinz, Hamburg: New inland waterway benefits port of Hamburg   | XI/24   | Merklein, Renate, Hamburg: The port of Hamburg between East and West  | IX/27  |
| Ellenberg, Dr Edward, Tel Aviv: Three-year economic plan versus devaluation   | IX/21   | Muldau, Bernd, Hamburg: Should American investment in the Common Market be condemned or encouraged?                                       | VII/11 |
| Ferrandi, Jacques, Brussels: The investment policy of the European Development Fund   | IX/14   | Niemeier, Ernst, Hamburg: The nonsense of antidumping   | I/3    |
| Fleckenstein, Kurt, Hamburg: Hamburg's position between EEC, EFTA and COMECON   | X/24    | Ortlieb, Prof Dr Heinz-Dietrich, Hamburg: Food and development policies   | IX/5   |
| Franci, Dr Michele Guido, Milan: Economic aspects of fair and exhibition policy. The future belongs to the general fair (interview) | X/10    | Panglaykim, Prof Dr G., Djakarta, and Arndt, Prof Dr H. W., Canberra: Indonesian economic problems in 1966                                | IX/22  |
| Franck, Christian, Hamburg: Neither victory nor defeat  | II/3    | Predöhl, Prof Dr Andreas, Hamburg: Kennedy Round and integration  | VIII/5 |
| — Europe needs more than free trade   | X/3     | — An economic crisis? — Stimulating forces still strong enough  | X/16   |
| Frisch, Alfred, Paris: France: Subsidies a tool of economic policy?   | III/12  | Röh, Klaus, Brussels: Rourkela — an example of co-operative development aid   | VII/17 |
| Fuchs, Dr Dietmar, Brussels: Yugoslavia after the reform of 1965  | XII/16  | Sai, Prof Frederick T., Accra: Development policy with trial and error. Ghana on new ways (interview)                                     | VIII/8 |
| Glahn, Hans-Otto, Madrid: New EEC-initiatives in Spain  | XII/24  | Schildmann, Gerhard, Hamburg: Chambers of foreign trade — Bridges between markets   | VI/3   |

|  |         |   |         |
|--|---------|---|---------|
| Schmahl, Dr Hans-Jürgen, Hamburg: The developing countries on the crest of world boom  | IV/3    | Uhlig, Dr Christian, Hamburg: Is famine the world's fate?   | III/3   |
| — An economic crisis? — No real parallel to 1929   | X/17    | — The economic significance of voluntary youth services in developing countries   | IV/17   |
| Schmid, Fred, Munich: Topical problems of Yugoslav foreign trade   | VIII/21 | — A French-speaking Commonwealth?   | VIII/13 |
| Schmücker, Kurt, Bonn: Will the Kennedy Round succeed? Extension of the EEC Commission's authorisation to negotiate increased chances of success (interview) | V/4     | Wertheimer, Prof Dr Robert G., Cambridge/Mass. United States: The role of subsidies   | III/15  |
| Sik, Prof. Ota, Prague: „Rapprochement“ of the economic systems in Eastern and Western Europe? (interview)   | II/4    | Westphalen, Dr Jürgen, Hamburg: Effects on development of the population explosion in Latin America                               | II/10   |
| Skischally, Dr Erich, Cologne: Economic of fair and exhibition policy. Fairs for developed countries only? (interview)                                       | X/6     | Wilhelms, Christian, Hamburg: Development through export diversification:   | I/9     |
| Sohmen, Prof Dr Egon, Saarbrücken: More security in international trade? (interview)   | IV/4    | — Export diversification through tropical products. Prospects in Brazil   | VI/4    |
| Tillmann, Dr Werner K., Bogotá: Latin America's export structure needing reform  | VI/15   | Wolfslast, Jürgen, Hamburg: Federal Germany: Doubtful effects of subsidisation  | III/9   |
|  |         | Wünschel, Ewald, Estella/Spain: Peru struggling for its monetary stability  | XI/10   |
|  |         | Zaunitzer-Haase, Dr Ingeborg, Hamburg: At the intersection of markets: EFTA investments in the area of Hamburg/Schleswig-Holstein | V/14    |

2. Index by Subjects

|  |        |  |         |  |         |
|--|--------|--|---------|--|---------|
| Adaption                                    |        | — Austria's association to EEC                           | XII/8   | — Food and—  | IX/5    |
| — Hamburg's position between EEC, EFTA and COMECON | X/24   | — Chambers of foreign trade                              | VI/3    | — Foreign trade favours developing countries             | XI/11   |
| — of farming to geography                          | VII/10 | — Exhibitions  | X/9     | — Ghana on new ways                                      | VIII/8  |
| — Port of Hamburg between East and West            | IX/27  | — Export promotion                                       | X/9     | — Indonesia  | IX/22   |
| — Regional adaption programmes                     |        | — Port of Hamburg  | IX/27   | — Nigeria joins the EEC                                  | IX/17   |
| — — Federal Republic                               | IX/7   | — Shipbuilding   | VI/9    | — "Social market economy"                                |         |
| Agriculture                                 |        | — Subsidies  | III/9   | — — Argentina  | X/5     |
| — Adjustment to geography                          | VII/10 | — Spain's association to EEC                             | XII/26  | — The investment policy of the European Development Fund | XI/14   |
| — EEC agricultural policy                          | VII/8  | — Yugoslav foreign trade                                 | VIII/22 | — Through export diversification                         | I/8     |
| — European Agricultural Fund                       | VII/9  | Currency  |         | East trade  |         |
| — Ghana  | VIII/8 | — Reform of the International Currency System            | VIII/17 | — Credit guarantees                                      | XI/4    |
| — Kennedy Round                                    | V/7    | — Monetary stability                                     |         | — Hamburg's position between EEC, EFTA and COMECON       | X/24    |
| — Policies within GATT                             | XI/6   | — — Peru   | XI/10   | — Yugoslavia   | VIII/21 |
| — Problems in developing countries                 | III/3  | — More security in foreign trade                         | IV/4    | Economic Planning                                 |         |
| — Spain  | XII/25 | Devaluation                                       |         | — in theory and practice                                 | X/18    |
| Antidumping                                 |        | — Israel   | IX/21   | — Israel   | IX/21   |
| — The nonsense of (see also subsidies)             | I/3    | — Great Britain  | XI/17   | — Yugoslavia   | XII/16  |
| Asian Developing Bank                       | XII/9  | Development Aid                                   |         | EEC   |         |
| Balance of Payments                         |        | (see also development policy)                            |         | — Agricultural policy of—                                | VII/8   |
| — Great Britain                                    | XI/17  | — Argentina  | VIII/7  | — Association  |         |
| — Indonesia  | IX/22  | — Future demands   | VIII/15 | — — Nigeria  | IX/17   |
| — Israel   | IX/21  | — Impediments to—  | XII/4   | — — Spain  | VIII/7  |
| — The need of high trade surpluses                 |        | Development Financing                             |         | — Austria wants to join—                                 | XII/7   |
| — — Federal Republic                               | XI/3   | — New approaches   | VIII/15 | — Balanced or unbalanced growth in the—                  | XI/20   |
| Budgetary Policy                            | XII/5  | Development Planning                              |         | — Chances of a wider—                                    | V/3     |
| Business Cycles                             |        | — Latin America  | III/4   | — Common Market no closed society                        | XII/6   |
| — German situation in 1966                         | X/16   | Development Policy                                |         | — Crisis   | II/3    |
| Chambers of Commerce                        | VI/6   | — and birth control                                      |         | — Current crisis of—                                     | I/12    |
| COMECON                                     |        | — — Latin America  | II/10   | — Europe between EEC and EFTA                            | X/3     |
| — Hamburg's position between EEC, EFTA and—        | X/24   | — An example of co-operative development aid— Rourkela   | VII/17  | — Foreign labour mobility                                | VII/4   |
| Competition                                 |        | — Aspects of fair and exhibition policy                  | X/6     | — Hamburg's position between EEC, EFTA and COMECON       | X/24    |
| — American investment in Europe                    | VII/15 | — Bilateral versus multilateral                          | VII/4   | — Meeting of the Council of Ministers                    | VIII/6  |
| Credit Guarantees                           |        | — by birth control                                       |         | — Regional adaption programmes                           |         |
| — by the USA                                       | XI/4   | — — Latin America  | XI/5    | — — Federal Republic                                     | IX/8    |
|  |        | — Economic significance of youth services                | IV/17   | — US-investment in the—                                  | VII/11  |
|  |        | — Extension of German investment in developing countries | X/13    |  |         |
|  |        | — Famine   | III/3   |  |         |

|   |         |  |  |         |  |         |
|---|---------|--|--|---------|--|---------|
| EFTA   |         |  | — ~ and development policies                         | IX/5    | Investments                                       |         |
| — Europe needs more than free trade                 | X/3     |  | — Food for freedom                                   | IX/6    | — Criteria for inland waterways                          | XI/24   |
| — Hamburg's position between EEC, EFTA and COMECON  | X/24    |  | — Ghana  | VIII/8  | — EFTA-investments                                       | V/14    |
| — Investments in the area of Hamburg                | V/14    |  | Foreign trade                                 |         |  |         |
| — Kennedy Round and integration                     | VIII/5  |  | — Chambers of ~                                      | VI/6    | — Extension of German private i. in developing countries | X/13    |
| — Regional adaption programmes                      |         |  | — Developing countries                               | IV/3    | — Rourkela   | VII/17  |
| — — Federal Republic                                | IX/7    |  | — Export promotion                                   | VII/3   | — The investment policy of the European Development Fund | XII/14  |
| Equalisation                                 |         |  | — — France   | XII/4   | — US-investment in the EEC                               | VII/11  |
| — Foreign exchange                                  | VIII/6  |  | — Fair and exhibition policy                         | X/6     | Kennedy Round                                     |         |
| European Agricultural Fund                   |         |  | — ~favours developing countries                      | XI/11   | (see also GATT)  |         |
| European Development Fund                    |         |  | — German export situation                            | I/4     | — and integration  | VIII/5  |
| — The investment policy of the—                     | XI/14   |  | — International trade                                |         | — Antidumping  | I/3     |
| European integration                         |         |  | — — Yugoslavia                                       | VIII/21 | — Chances of success                                     | V/4     |
| — A French-speaking Commonwealth?                   | VIII/13 |  | — Problems of German-Indonesian trade                | VII/6   | — Prospects of the—                                      | V/6     |
| — Agricultural and general economic interdependence | VII/8   |  | — The need of high trade surpluses                   |         | — Agriculture  | XI/6    |
| — Association                                       |         |  | — — Federal Republic                                 | XI/3    | LAFTA   |         |
| — — Spain   | VIII/7  |  | — Trade with the East                                | XI/4    | — EEC as model   | VIII/11 |
| — Austria wants to join EEC                         | XII/7   |  | GATT  |         |  | XII/20  |
| — Chances of a wider EEC                            | V/3     |  | — Farming policies within—                           | XI/6    | Marketing   |         |
| — Common market—no closed society                   | XII/6   |  | — Kennedy Round                                      |         | — Aspects of fair and exhibition policy                  | X/6     |
| — Europe needs more than free trade                 | X/3     |  | — — chances of success                               | V/4     | — in developing countries                                | X/5     |
| — Kennedy Round and integration                     | VIII/5  |  | — Kennedy Round and integration                      | VIII/5  | — Market research  |         |
| — Regional adaption programmes                      | IX/8    |  | Growth  |         |  | IV/10   |
| — Spanish EEC-initiatives                           | XII/24  |  | — Balanced or unbalanced—in the EEC                  | XI/20   | Mobility  |         |
| Exhibitions                                  |         |  | Horowitz Plan                                 |         |  | VII/4   |
| — Economic aspect of fairs and—                     | X/6     |  | IDA   |         |  |         |
| Export Diversification                       |         |  | — Development financing                              | VIII/16 | Monetary Stability                                |         |
| — Coffee  | XII/5   |  | IMF   |         |  | XI/10   |
| — for development                                   | I/9     |  | — Meeting of the—                                    | XI/5    | Motor Cars  |         |
| — Tropical products                                 |         |  | — Development financing                              | VIII/16 | — Japan  | VIII/7  |
| — — Brazil  | VI/4    |  | Import  |         |  |         |
| Export Promotion                             |         |  | (see foreign trade)                                  |         | Pipeline  |         |
| — Change without improvement                        |         |  | Industry                                      |         |  | XI/4    |
| — — Federal Republic                                | XII/3   |  | — Importance of inland waterways for ~               | XI/26   | Planning  |         |
| — Competitiveness                                   | XII/4   |  | — Motor cars   |         | — Development ~  | III/4   |
| — Developing countries                              | IX/10   |  | — — Japan  | VIII/7  | — Economic ~ in theory and practice                      | IX/5    |
| — Federal Republic                                  | IX/8    |  | — Pipeline management SA                             | XI/4    | — Entrepreneurial ~ in East and West                     | II/4    |
|   | X/14    |  | Inflation                                     |         |  | IX/8    |
| — France  | IX/7    |  | — The way out of — through prices and incomes policy | XII/13  | — Ghana  | VIII/8  |
| — Japan   | XII/4   |  | — Indonesia  | IX/24   | — Israel   | IX/21   |
| — New concepts of—                                  | VII/3   |  | Integration                                   |         |  | XII/20  |
| Export situation                             |         |  | (see also Kennedy Round, GATT, EEC and EFTA)         |         | — The financing of development aid                       | VIII/16 |
| (see also foreign trade)                            |         |  | — A French-speaking Commonwealth?                    | VIII/13 | — Yugoslavia   | VIII/21 |
| — German export situation                           | I/4     |  | — EEC-association                                    | VIII/7  | Population  |         |
| Export Structure                             |         |  | — EEC-policies                                       | VII/8   | — Birth control  |         |
| — Latin America                                     | II/15   |  | — Europe needs more than free trade                  | X/3     | — — Latin America  | XI/5    |
| Fairs  |         |  | — Latin America                                      | VIII/11 | — Effects on development                                 |         |
| — Economic aspects of fairs and exhibitions         | X/6     |  | — EEC and Spain                                      | XII/25  | — — Latin America  | II/10   |
| Farming Policy                               |         |  | International Development Association Fund    |         |  |         |
| (see also agriculture)                              |         |  |  | VIII/17 | Protectionism                                     |         |
| — Adjustment to geography                           | VII/10  |  | International Trade                           |         |  |         |
| — Agricultural policy of the EEC                    | VII/8   |  | — Aspects of fair and exhibition policy              | X/6     | (see also export promotion)                              |         |
| — European Agricultural Fund                        | VII/9   |  | — Export promotion                                   | VII/3   | — Agriculture in the Kennedy Round                       | XI/6    |
| — Policies within GATT                              | XI/6    |  | — German-Indonesian trade                            | VII/6   | — EEC policies   | VII/8   |
| Food   |         |  | — More security in ~                                 | III/4   | — ~ in shipping  | VII/5   |
| — Famine  | III/3   |  | — Trade with the East                                | XI/4    | Rapprochement                                     |         |
|   |         |  |  |         | — of the economic systems                                | II/4    |
|   |         |  |  |         | Raw materials                                     |         |
|   |         |  |  |         | — Cocoa  | V/18    |
|   |         |  |  |         | — Coffee conference                                      | IX/30   |
|   |         |  |  |         | — Coffee economy   | X/4     |
|   |         |  |  |         | — Commodity agreements                                   | XII/5   |
|   |         |  |  |         | — Copper   | VII/4   |
|   |         |  |  |         |  | IV/22   |
|   |         |  |  |         |  | VU/16   |

|                           |         |                               |        |                            |        |
|---------------------------|---------|-------------------------------|--------|----------------------------|--------|
| — Latin America. Rubber   | II/15   | Shipbuilding           |        | — Shipbuilding and—        | VI/9   |
|                           | I/18    | — and subsidies               | VI/9   | — USA                      | III/15 |
|                           | VI/18   | Shipping               |        | Taxes               |        |
| — Tropical products       | X/28    | — Container                   | V/11   | — Import surcharge         | V/17   |
| — Wool                    | VI/4    | — Passenger shipping          | IX/6   | — Selective Employment Tax | VII/5  |
|                           | II/19   | — Protectionism in developing |        |                            | XI/18  |
|                           | VII/22  | countries                     | VII/5  | — Tax benefits             |        |
|                           | XI/22   |                               |        | — — France                 | III/12 |
| — Zinc and lead           | III/22  | Soviet Commercial Bank | XI/4   | Terms of Trade      |        |
|                           | VIII/26 |                               |        | — Developing countries     | IX/16  |
|                           | XII/28  | Subsidies              |        | Traffic Policy      |        |
| Regional Policy    |         | — Federal Republic            | III/9  | — Inland waterway for      |        |
| — Adaption programmes     | IX/7    | (see also antidumping)        |        | Hamburg                    | XI/24  |
| — New inland waterway     |         | — France                      | III/12 | — Shipping                 | V/11   |
| for Hamburg               | XI/24   | — Great Britain               | III/18 |                            | IX/6   |
| — Port of Hamburg between |         | — Impediments to develop-     |        |                            |        |
| East and West             | IX/27   | ment aid                      | XII/4  |                            |        |

3. Index by Countries

|                                     |         |                                    |        |                                   |        |
|-------------------------------------|---------|------------------------------------|--------|-----------------------------------|--------|
| Africa                       |         | EEC                         |        | Chambers of foreign trade—        |        |
| A French-speaking Common-           |         | The nonsense of antidumping        | I/3    | Bridges between markets           | VI/3   |
| wealth?                             | VIII/13 | Economic aspects of the current    |        | Foreign Labour. Not to ignore     |        |
| Towards a behavioural science       |         | EEC crisis                         | I/12   | mobility                          | VII/4  |
| of market research: The             |         | Neither victory nor defeat         | II/3   | Topical problems of German-       |        |
| challenge of Africa                 | IV/10   | New chances of a "Wider            |        | Indonesian trade (interview)      | VII/6  |
|                                     |         | European Economic                  |        | Allied forces. Foreign exchange   |        |
| Argentina                    |         | Community"?                        | V/3    | equalisation                      | VIII/6 |
| Aid by trade. Reasonable            |         | Foreign labour. Not to ignore      |        | EEC—EFTA. Regional adaption       |        |
| creditors wanted                    | VIII/17 | mobility                           | VII/4  | programmes                        | IX/4   |
| "Social market economy"             | X/5     | Interdependence between the        |        | Passenger shipping. Between       |        |
|                                     |         | agricultural and general           |        | profit and prestige               | IX/6   |
| Asia                         |         | economic policies of the EEC       | VII/8  | Should, and can, the state        |        |
| The Asian Development Bank          |         | Should American investment in      |        | promote export?                   |        |
| on the eve of commencing            |         | the Common Market be con-          |        | — Fundamental change of export    |        |
| activities                          | XII/9   | demned or encouraged?              | VII/11 | policy not required               |        |
|                                     |         | EEC-meeting of the Council         |        | (interview)                       | IX/8   |
| Austria                      |         | of Ministers. 27th July—           |        | — Deliveries to developing        |        |
| Austria wants to join EEC           |         | a date to remember?                | VIII/6 | countries calling for             |        |
| (interview)                         | XII/7   | EEC-Association. One step at       |        | promotion (interview)             | IX/10  |
|                                     |         | a time                             | VIII/7 | The port of Hamburg between       |        |
| Brazil                       |         | Nigeria joins the EEC—chance       |        | East and West                     | IX/27  |
| Export diversification through      |         | of aid by trade                    | IX/17  | West German foreign trade policy  |        |
| tropical products. Prospects        |         | The investment policy of the       |        | Export promotion in slices        | X/4    |
| in Brazil                           | VI/4    | European Development Fund          | XI/14  | How to extend German private      |        |
|                                     |         | Balanced or unbalanced growth      |        | investment in developing          |        |
| Developing Countries         |         | in the EEC                         | XI/14  | countries                         | X/13   |
| Development through export diversi- |         | Common Market—no closed            |        | An economic crisis? Stimulat-     |        |
| fication: Some suggestions          | I/9     | society                            | XII/6  | ing forces still strong enough    | X/16   |
| Is famine the world's fate?         | III/3   | Austria wants to join EEC          |        | An economic crisis? No real       |        |
| The developing countries on the     |         | (interview)                        | XII/24 | parallel to 1929                  | X/17   |
| crest of world boom                 | IV/3    | Europe                      |        | Hamburg's position between EEC,   |        |
| The economic significance of        |         | "Rapprochement" of the economic    |        | EFTA and COMECON                  | X/24   |
| voluntary youth services in         |         | systems in Eastern and             |        | The need of high trade surpluses  | XI/3   |
| developing countries                | IV/17   | Western Europe? (interview)        | II/4   | New inland waterway benefits      |        |
| Capital aid. When will they         |         | Europe needs more than free        |        | Port of Hamburg                   | XI/24  |
| ever learn?                         | VII/4   | trade                              | X/3    | Change without improvement        | XII/3  |
| Shipping. Flag must follow trade    | VII/5   | Economic planning in theory        |        | Export promotion. Causes for      |        |
| New approaches to financing         |         | and practice. The experiences      |        | lacking competitiveness           | XII/4  |
| development aid                     | VIII/15 | of Western European countries      | X/18   | France                     |        |
| Food and development policies       | IX/5    | A trip wire for governments        | XII/5  | Subsidies a tool of economic      |        |
| Terms of trade and the develop-     |         | Federal Republic of Germany |        | policy?                           | III/12 |
| ment countries                      | IX/16   | The nonsense of antidumping        | I/3    | New French export promotion       | IX/7   |
| Coffee Conference. Chacun pour      |         | A practical view of the German     |        | Ghana                      |        |
| soi et ICO pour tous ...            | X/4     | export situation (interview)       | I/4    | Development policy with trial and |        |
| Trade by aid. Marketing in          |         | Doubtful effects of subsidisation  | III/9  | error Ghana on new ways           |        |
| developing countries                | X/5     | At the intersection of markets:    |        | (interview)                       | VIII/8 |
| Foreign trade favours developing    |         | EFTA investments in the            |        | Great Britain              |        |
| countries                           | XI/11   | area of Hamburg/Schleswig-         |        | A temporary remedy has become     |        |
| Subsidies. Impediment to develop-   |         | Holstein                           | VI/14  | a permanent institution           | III/18 |
| ment aid                            | XII/4   |                                    |        |                                   |        |

|  |        |   |         |   |         |
|--|--------|---|---------|---|---------|
| External aspects of British economic policy              | XI/17  | Latin America  |         | Trade with the East. Credit Guarantees by the United States   | XI/4    |
| India   |        | Effects on development of the population explosion in Latin America | II/10   | USSR   |         |
| Is famine the world's fate?                              | III/3  | Latin America's export structure needing reform                     | II/15   | Soviet Commercial Bank. Trade or disturbance?   | XI/4    |
| Rourkela—an example of co-operative development aid      | VII/17 | Can we plan the development planning?                               | III/4   | World  |         |
| Indonesia   |        | EEC as model for Latin American integration                         | VIII/11 | Will the Kennedy Round succeed? Extension of the EEC Commission's authorisation to negotiate increased chances of success (interview) | V/4     |
| Topical problems of German-Indonesian trade (interview)  | VII/6  | Development policy by birth control                                 | XI/5    | The Kennedy Round can succeed (interview)   | V/6     |
| Indonesian economic problems in 1966                     | IX/22  | Basis for a Latin American Common Market                            | XII/20  | Worldwide export promotion requires new concepts  | VII/3   |
| Israel  |        | Nigeria  |         | Commodity agreements. Don't mix trade with aid  | VII/4   |
| Three-year economic plan versus devaluation              | IX/21  | Nigeria joins the EEC—chance of aid by trade                        | IX/17   | Kennedy Round and integration   | VIII/5  |
| Italy   |        | Peru   |         | Meeting of the IMF. Declarations and true intentions  | XI/5    |
| Should, and can, the state promote export?               |        | Peru struggling for its monetary stability                          | XI/10   | Common rules for farming policies within GATT (interview)   | XI/6    |
| — Results more than satisfactory (interview)             | IX/13  | Spain  |         | Yugoslavia   |         |
| — Economic aspects of fair and exhibition policy         | IX/10  | EEC-Association. One step at a time                                 | VIII/7  | Topical problems of Yugoslav foreign trade  | VIII/21 |
| The future belongs to the general fair (interview)       |        | New EEC-initiatives in Spain  | XII/24  | Yugoslavia after the reform of 1965   | XII/16  |
| Japan   |        | USA  |         |   |         |
| Motor cars. Japan ante portas                            | VIII/7 | The role of subsidies   | III/15  |   |         |
| Export stimulation. Japan the winner in South-East-Asia? | XII/4  | Food for freedom. Developing countries without PL 480?              | IX/6    |   |         |

